

BOYCOTT BUDWEISER AND BUD LIGHT

Clare Rose, a beer distributor in East Yaphank and Melville, NY wants the 130 workers that deliver, sell and merchandise its products, including Budweiser brands, to take steep pay and benefit cuts. The company is very profitable, but instead of rewarding workers, the company is demanding:

- A 30% Reduction in Wages
- Elimination of their Pension Plan and Other Benefits

Clare Rose has provided good middle-class jobs to Long Islanders for generations, but the company is now turning it's back on the community to boost profits and executive pay.

Clare Rose has received hundreds of thousands of dollars in taxpayer-funded Industrial Development Agency benefits. This money is supposed to be used to create and keep good jobs here in Long Island. But instead, Clare Rose used out of state non-union labor to build their new headquarters. And now they want to raise profits by paying their workers less. In addition to Budweiser products, the company distributes Heineken, Blue Point, Pabst Blue Ribbon (PBR), Greenport, Long Ireland, Great South Bay, Port Jeff and Clam Rake beers.

Say no to corporate greed. Tell Clare Rose that its workers deserve fair treatment and pay for their dedicated service.
